

HOT YOGA ON 20TH

CODE OF ETHICS

Our code of ethics are the rules by which Hot Yoga on 20th is run, philosophically and practically. All employees adhere to the standards outlined below.

1. Teachers are ambassadors for their profession. Integrity and honesty must be maintained at all times, and the wellbeing of students is of the utmost importance.
2. The studio as a clean and safe environment for all students and employees. This means not just physically safe, but safe from all forms of harrassment or discrimination on any grounds (sex, race, age, sexual orientation, religious and political or physical limitations).
3. Environmental awareness is at the forefront of all decisions regarding the studio – for example – equipment or cleaning products.
4. We respect the rights of everyone to privacy.
5. Violence in any form (words or actions) is not acceptable in the studio.
6. We will adhere to all laws and regulations regarding the running of the business and all teachers will have formal training and be fully insured.
7. All students will be treated equally with kindness and compassion.
8. No persons will be admitted to the studio under the effects of drugs or alcohol.
9. We respect the wider yoga community in Saskatoon and are proud to be a part of it.
10. One or more classes per week have the proceeds donated to charity.
